

Reimagining Our Tomorrows

EVERYWHERE YOU LOOK, FROM MAINSTREAM MEDIA TO YOUR SOCIAL MEDIA FEED, THE HEADLINES SCREAM WARNINGS ABOUT THE FUTURE THAT AWAITS US:

- Technology has already stolen your privacy
- Digital addiction is destroying your ability to think
- Automation is going to take your job
- Climate change is threatening your very existence

I WANT TO HELP YOU REIMAGINE OUR TOMORROWS;

to show you that we are living in a time when the possibility of creating a better future has never been greater.

Are You Ready to Create Your Future?

In this keynote, we'll take a deep dive into the massive disruptions that are affecting businesses, communities, and governments to understand the forces that are driving these changes. We'll get beyond the shiny new technologies and frightening forecasts to help you see this age of accelerating change in a different light. Armed with these insights you can imagine how this tsunami of change can lead to a future that is sustainable, abundant, and equitable.
